

WEEKEND WORKSHOPS

Watercolours for All

Beginners to more advanced are invited to join this two-day workshop with Shirley Urquhart that will cover all aspects of watercolour painting, seeking a quick direct approach, resulting in vibrant watercolours full of light, freshness and colour. Subject matter will be wide ranging and varied - rural landscapes, streetscapes and still life. Concentrating on composition, tone and shape, all participants will learn about dry brush and wet into wet techniques, washes and glazes. A list of materials will be sent to all interested. Shirley is a watercolour artist and printmaker who lives at Emerald Hill, well known in the region and further afield for her distinctive style. Tutor: Shirley Urquhart

Weekend October 30-31 9.30am-3.30pm
